Assignment 3
Due: September 26, 2007

Computing and Medicine
(20 points)

- 3.1. In Microsoft Word, open “CS210_Header.doc” and save it as “CS210_Assignment3.doc”. Edit the document to say “Assignment 3” and type in “September 26” as the due date.
- 3.2. Perform a Web search to learn about the role of computers in at least three modern medical technologies. Besides, find out how success of The Beatles may have been instrumental to development of Computed Tomography. Type a short essay (no more than one or two pages long) summarizing results of your Web search. In your opinion, whom should we trust more, human physicians or computer-based medical applications, and why? Provide a list of URLs (Web addresses) where you found the information at the end of the essay. Save your work as needed.
- 3.3. Print your essay and submit it on the due date.
